

Main Privacy Notice:

How we use your information

For details about how we handle personal information collected for COVID19 purposes see our COVID19 Privacy Notice

This privacy notice was updated on 01.09.2020

Perdiswell Primary School is a mainstream, state funded primary school. We are the data controller for the personal data we process under this privacy notice.

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy notice explains the personal data we process, how we process it and for what purpose. For details about how we handle personal information collected for COVID19 purposes see our COVID19 Privacy Notice.

How we get information

Most of the personal data we process is provided to us directly by you for one of the following reasons:

- You are a pupil
- You are a parent/carer registering your child at our school
- You are a visitor attending our school
- You are a volunteer, governor or trustee applying to work with us
- You have applied for a job or secondment at the school
- You have made an information request, complaint or enquiry to us
- You are a visitor to our website

The collection of personal data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of the information provided to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of data collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this and we will tell you what you need to do if you do not want to share this with us.

We may also receive personal information about you indirectly, for example:

- If you are a pupil, your previous school will send us your education file when you join our school
- A parent/carer may give us your name and contact details in case we cannot contact them directly, or to make us aware that you are authorised to collect their child from school
- An employee may give us your name and contact details as their 'emergency contact' or next of kin
- Your name and contact details may be given to us by job applicants, volunteers or trustees, as a referee to support their application
- Public authorities, regulators or law enforcement bodies may give us information to assist them in their enquiries or to help safeguard children.

Personal information we collect and why

We collect personal information about a range of data subjects as part of the day-to-day running of our school.

Pupils

We collect the following information about you:

- Personal identifiers (such as name, unique pupil number and contact details)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, and free school meal eligibility)
- Safeguarding information
- Medical information

- Attendance
- Assessment and attainment
- Behavioural information
- Photographs and video recordings of you and your work
- Your consent preferences

We need this information for a variety of reasons, for example to process your admission request to join our school; help us build a picture of your educational, social and health needs, so we can support you and comply with our legal responsibilities for data sharing with the Department for Education (DfE). For more details see Pupil Privacy Notice.

Parents and carers

We collect the following information about you:

- Your name and contact details

We need this information to comply with our legal obligations and governance standards and build a comprehensive picture of our school governance and how it is deployed. For more details see Members, Governors and Trustees Privacy Notice.

Visitors to our website

When you visit our website, we collect standard internet log information and details about visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of our website. We collect this information in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting this website and will not associate any data gathered, with any personally identifying information from any source. For details about the Cookies we use, see our Cookie Policy

Who we share information with

We share information with a range of organisations, companies and agencies, where it is necessary for us to carry out our legal responsibilities and duties as a school. We only share information about you where it is strictly necessary for us to do so, and the law and our policies allow us to do this. The following are examples of who we share information with:

Department for Education (DfE)

We have a legal requirement to share certain information about our pupils/students, employees and governors to the DfE (see individual privacy notices).

Our local authority – school admission and safeguarding teams

We have a legal requirement to share certain information about our pupils/students, parents, employees and governors with our local authority (see individual privacy notices).

Educational psychologists, school nurses and health visitors

We sometimes share information about our pupils/students with other professionals, to help them receive the necessary educational and pastoral support they need. This is usually shared with the parent's consent (and if appropriate student's consent) unless it is necessary for us to carry out our official duties or safeguard the welfare of the child (see Pupil Privacy Notice).

Other schools when a pupil leaves us

We are required to transfer our pupils'/students' educational file to their next school when they leave us (see Pupil Privacy Notice).

Standards and Testing Agency (SATs)

We are required to share information about pupils in year 2 and in year 6 to the Standards and Testing Agency, so they can facilitate and report on our key stage 1 and key stage 2 national curriculum tests (commonly referred to as SATs) (see Pupil Privacy Notice).

Ofsted

We may be required to support an Ofsted inspection, where an inspector asks to see a sample of the school's records. These records could identify a pupil, employee or visitor. Any personal information the inspector may see, will not be taken away or used in their reports.

Police and law enforcement agencies

We may be required to share information about any person we hold information about, to the police or other law enforcement agencies, to assist them in an investigation or to prevent or detect a crime or safeguard individuals at risk.

Service providers

We use companies that provide us with a service to help us run effectively as a school; the services we often receive are IT support, professional or legal advice, learning or teaching resources, communication services, catering or transport. To receive these services, we sometimes need to share personal information.

We also work alongside other organisations or individuals that provide services directly to our parents or students, such as the school photographer, organisers of extra-curricular clubs or activities or companies that run school trips or provide accommodation or transport. The companies/individuals we use in these circumstances, will change on a regular basis. If you would like information about any specific companies or individuals we work alongside, please contact us at office@perdiswellpri.worcs.sch.uk.

Our legal basis for collecting, using and sharing information

The main legal bases we rely on when we process personal information are as follows:

- It is necessary for us to perform a task which is in the public interest or to exercise our official duties as a school
This broad legal basis is applicable to almost all the processing we do involving personal data.
- It is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation
This is applicable where a specific law requires us to collect or share personal data (this usually involves pupils'/students', employees' or governors' data). This will include sharing data with the Department for Education (DfE), Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC) or HM Courts and Tribunal Service (e.g. following a court order).
- It is necessary for the performance of a contract
This will mainly be applicable when we enter into a contract with our employees or with our service providers.
- The data subject has given their consent
Consent is not required for most of the processing we do, however, there are occasions when we ask for consent. For example, if we want to publish photographs or videos of pupils/students; share data with other organisations or individuals where we are not legally required to share that data; send parents/carers electronic direct marketing or fundraising communications, which they have opted-in to receiving. Where we are processing your data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or if you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the school office.

- The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or someone else

This is applicable where a person's life could be at risk and we need to share or make available information to help them. This could involve sharing serious allergy information with staff, paramedics or other medical professionals, or other information requested by the police or social services, to assist them in their enquiries to protect that person.

When we process 'special category' data, we must have another legal basis. Special category data is personal data which reveals a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinion, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data (such as fingerprints), health, sex life or sexual orientation. The main legal bases we rely on when we process this type of data is as follows:

- The data subject has given explicit consent

This is usually applicable where we ask for health or dietary information (usually about our employees or students).

- The processing is necessary for performing any right or obligation which is imposed on the school in relation to employment, social security and social protection law (e.g. safeguarding individuals at risk; protection against unlawful acts; prevention against fraud)

This is usually applicable where we are performing our duties under employment related laws e.g. in relation to health and safety, equality or tax or where we have taken action to safeguard students at risk.

- It is necessary to protect the vital interests of any person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent

This could be relied upon in situations where someone has become seriously ill on our premises and we are asked by medical practitioners (such as paramedics), to share information we know about that person's health or allergies.

- The processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims

We may share or use special category data where legal action is being considered or underway.

- The processing is necessary in the substantial public interest

This may be relied upon in circumstances such as where our processing is necessary to safeguard children or others at risk or where we respond to requests from the Police or law enforcement bodies, to assist in an investigation to prevent or detect an unlawful act.

- The processing is necessary for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee

This will be applicable where an employee has been absent from work due to illness or injury and we need to assess whether they are fit to return to work.

This list is not exhaustive.

How we protect your information

We take our security responsibilities seriously in order to protect your personal data from accidental or unlawful access, disclosure, loss, damage or destruction. For example:

- Access to our data is on a strict need to know basis
- Our electronic records are held on encrypted servers
- We use up to date virus and malware protection software; security patches are applied promptly and we back up our data regularly
- Our sensitive paper files are locked away with restricted access to the keys
- Our employees, volunteers and governors are subject to Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks and they understand their duty of confidentiality
- We have policies, procedures and training around data protection, security, record disposal and confidentiality
- We have strict visitor management security procedures in place
- We use encrypted email or secure file sharing platforms to share confidential personal data with external organisations
- We carry out due diligence checks on our service providers and Data Protection Impact Assessments, where required.

Storing personal data

The personal information we collect and store is essential for our school's operational use. We only keep personal information for as long as we need to, and where it is necessary to comply with any legal, contractual, accounting or reporting obligations. After this period, we delete or securely destroy personally identifiable data.

For more information about how long we keep personal data for, see our record retention schedule <http://www.perdiswellpri.worcs.sch.uk/our-school/gdpr/>.

Your data protection rights

You have the following rights under the data protection laws:

Your right of access

You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal data. There are some exemptions, which means you may not always receive all the information we process. If you are a parent/carer and want to request a copy of your child's educational record, this type of request will be handled under The Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005.

Your right to rectification

You have the right to ask us to rectify information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure

You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing

You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing

You have the right to object to us processing your information where we consider this is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest. You can also object to us using your contact details to send you direct marketing or fundraising communications, which you have previously opted-in to receiving.

Your right to data portability

This only applies to information you have given us. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organisation to another or give it to you. The right only applies if we are processing information based on your consent or under a contract (or in talks about entering into a contract) and the processing is automated.

Your right to complain

We work to high standards when it comes to processing your personal information. We hope you will always be happy with the way we handle your information, however if we have not met your expectations, please let us know so we can put things right. To do this, please email the school at office@perdiswellpri.worcs.sch.uk. If you remain dissatisfied, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO's contact details are available at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns> Further information about your data protection rights, can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office website at www.ico.org.
